RADIOLOGY SERVICES

Joseph Kavanagh, MD/MBA, is a diagnostic radiologist who is currently practicing with EliteRad Radiology Services, a national radiology practice. Dr. Kavanagh received his bachelor's degree from Vanderbilt University. He obtained his medical degree and a Masters of Business Administration at the University of South Florida. He later finished his internship and residency at the Medical University of South Carolina. He has been a board certified radiologist by the American Board of Radiology since 2007.

Dr. Kavanagh was previously affiliated with Nighthawk Radiology and subsequently Virtual Radiologic services from 2007 to 2014. He practiced overseas for these companies, living in Sydney, Australia and Zurich, Switzerland, before relocating to his home state of Florida in 2013. He is currently working as a full-time radiologist for multiple radiology centers across the state of Florida, as well as in multiple other states in the United States. He is currently performing full-time duties as a radiologist, subspecializing in MRI and musculoskeletal imaging. After getting his initial experience with personal injury radiology in Minnesota, Dr. Kavanagh now reads personal injury cases from 6 different states, including California and Arizona.

Dr. Kavanagh performs full-time radiology duties including the interpretation of MRI, CT, ultrasound, and nuclear medicine testing. He is available for expert radiology consultation and review of studies.
